

Latin

KS3

Tuesday 6th September 2022

Starter: revising present tense verb endings

Answer the following questions:

1. neco means 'I kill'. Give the Latin for 'we kill'.

_____ (1) ()

2. amas means 'you (s.) love'. Give the Latin for 'you (pl.) love'.

_____ (1) ()

3. ambulat means 'he walks'. Give the Latin for 'they walk'.

_____ (1) ()

4. aedificamus means 'we build'. Give the Latin for 'I build'.

_____ (1) ()

5. datis means 'you (pl.) give'. Give the Latin for 'you (s.) give'.

_____ (1) ()

Latin verbs change their endings according to who is doing the action

I	-o
You	-s
He/she/it	-t
We	-mus
You	-tis
They	-nt

Does anyone know the hand movements to help remember these?

Writing tasks

Tuesday 13th September

LO: to recognise and translate
the subject of verbs

Exercise 1.9

Translate into Latin, as in the examples. You may need the vocabulary below for some of these.

E.g. We are shouting = clāmāmus.

E.g. He does not shout = nōn clāmat.

1. She hurries.
2. They are singing.
3. You (singular) walk.
4. Aulus is not singing.
5. Sulpicia works.
6. The farmer is shouting.
7. I ask.
8. They are killing.
9. We call.
10. They do not hurry.

Who is the subject of each verb?

Highlight the Latin verb ending and then the subject in your English translation

Vocabulary 1

aedificō = I build

ambulō = I walk

amō = I love, like

cantō = I sing

clāmō = I shout

dō* = I give ego = I

et = and

festinō = I hurry

habitō = I inhabit, live, dwell

labōrō = I work

laudō = I praise

necō = I kill

nōs = we

pugnō = I fight

rogō = I ask, ask for sum = I am

tū = you (singular)

vocō = I call

vōs = you (plural)

Exercise 1.12 Grammar

Read the following passage and answer the following questions on it:

Marcus	'ego clamo. agricola sum.'
Gaius et Tiberius	'nos pugnamus. nautae sumus. Cassia et Aurelia cantant.'
Sulpicia	'feminae sunt. Marcus clamat et vos pugnatis.'

- Give examples from the passage above of:
a plural noun _____ a 2nd person plural verb _____
a 1st person singular verb _____ a 1st person plural verb _____ (4) ()
 - Marcus says 'I am a farmer.' (agricola sum, line 1). What would you write instead of sum if you wanted to say 'You (s.) are a farmer'? _____ (1) ()
 - State the person of clamat (line 3). _____ (1) ()
 - Sulpicia says 'They are women' (feminae sunt, line 3). How would you say 'She is a woman'? _____ (2) ()
 - 'Cassia and Aurelia sing' (Cassia et Aurelia cantant, line 2). What verb would you write if only one woman was singing? _____ (1) ()
 - Marcus says 'ego clamo' (line 1). What is the point of using ego? _____ (1) ()
 - Translate into Latin: Gaius is a poet. He sings. _____ (5) ()
 - Translate into Latin: The farmers work and you (s.) fight. _____ (5) ()
- TOTAL (20) ()

Complete the worksheet

I	-o
You	-s
He/she/it	-t
We	-mus
You	-tis
They	-nt

Home Learning

I	-o
You	-s
He/she/it	-t
We	-mus
You	-tis
They	-nt

Learn the present tense verb endings for a quiz next Tuesday!